

Merry Christmas!

I purchased a copy of The Last Apostle for you. It will be shipped by February 1st. I hope you'll enjoy it.

What if John, the last living apostle of Jesus Christ, was still alive and living in Seattle? For two thousand years, John has wandered the earth and influenced history while hiding his true identity. But now, both friends and foes are on the verge of discovering who he truly is—an event that will trigger the end times.

Can John throw off those who would discover his secret, or will curious friends or suspicious enemies spark the apocalypse?

Download the first five chapters at www.TheLastApostle.com